

Lincoln Caylor

Partner

T: 416.777.6121 / E: caylorl@bennettjones.com

Toronto

EDUCATION

University of King's College, BA, 1990

University of Ottawa, LLB, 1993

Institute of Corporate Directors, NFP-
Governance Essentials Program, 2010

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ontario, 1995

Litigator Lincoln Caylor advises clients on international economic crimes from asset-tracing investigations and asset-recovery litigation, to enforcement actions in complex, global financial frauds and related internal investigations, including Canada's anti-money laundering regime.

In 2022, Chambers & Partners Global-wide Asset Tracing & Recovery ranked Lincoln as its sole Canadian-based litigator once again. According to a friendly competitor, "he's the first port of call for any of this work that touches on Canadian territory."

"He's an excellent advocate," a market peer affirms, "Lincoln is a leader...at high-level strategy and setting out a plan to follow to ensure that individual events don't interrupt the overall plan."

"Lincoln is one of the leading fraud and asset recovery lawyers in the world.
Lincoln is a great leader and very senior in our field."

Chambers & Partners, 2022

Given his familiarity with multifaceted mandates, Lincoln often helps clients through complex proceedings while simultaneously planning with international counterparts to develop and implement cross-border litigation and asset-recovery strategies and solutions. Chambers & Partners Global-wide Asset Tracing and Recovery latest review, sums him up as a “technically excellent” advocate who “deals with difficult situations in a calm and collected manner.”

Consequently, clients repeatedly highlight his dedication and solid track record, collectively noting him as a National Leader in Who's Who Legal: Canada - Litigation 2022. “[He] is recognized by market commentators as ‘a top-class litigator’ with unmatched skills in international asset tracing and recovery.”

"Within legal circles Lincoln is undoubtedly considered the number-one asset recovery lawyer in Canada."

Chambers & Partners, 2021

Lincoln's professional impact is notable amongst peers who regard him as a voice in and out of the courtroom. He co-founded and frequently cooperates with Fellows of The International Academy of Financial Crime Litigators, a collaboration between elite public and private litigation professionals and the Basel Institute on Governance to expand worldwide access to solutions in economic crime cases.

Lincoln served as a governor and vice-chairman of Upper Canada College and is a past chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Barrow Foundation. He is also a former member of the Board of Directors for The Macdonald Laurier Institute. Lincoln is a proud recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal for his devotion to Canada.