Marshall Haughey is a partner in the Bennett Jones national Tax group, based in the Calgary office. His creative and client-centered approach to problem-solving is invaluable to clients in solving their most complex legal matters. Marshall practises in all areas of Canadian domestic and international income tax law, with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, corporate transactions and reorganizations, inbound and outbound investment and financing, and private equity. In addition, a significant component of Marshall's tax practice is devoted to advising high net worth families on complex tax planning matters, often with an international tax element.

Marshall frequently presents on and authors tax articles and serves as a special advisor to the Canadian Tax Foundation Board of Governors and as an editor of the Federated Press International Tax Planning Journal. He is consistently recommended for corporate tax in the Canadian Legal Expert Directory.
