

Shannon Kovacs

Paralegal

T: 780.917.4252 / E: kovacss@bennettjones.com

Edmonton

Shannon Kovacs is a litigation paralegal with a focus on Medical Malpractice Defence. Shannon has over 20 years of experience working as both a legal assistant and paralegal in various areas of law, including police law, administrative law, family law, residential real estate and litigation. She has also been an executive assistant in the aviation communications industry. Her current scope of work includes drafting pleadings, managing production and undertakings, coordinating with experts and assisting with trial preparation while regularly collaborating with lawyers, staff, clients and external parties.