Lucas Stevens-Hall practices corporate and securities law, with an emphasis on, M&A, private equity and venture capital transactions, shareholder arrangements, corporate finance, and corporate reorganizations. Lucas routinely acts for both private equity sponsors and their portfolio companies in M&A transactions. Lucas' experience in venture capital transactions includes advising venture firms and issuers in private offerings of debt and equity securities, both domestically and cross-border. He also has significant experience advising multinational companies on complex corporate reorganizations.

Lucas has represented clients across a spectrum of industries, including established industries such as mining, aviation, manufacturing/industrial, staffing, oil and gas, utilities and telecommunications. He has also advised clients in emerging growth industries such as gaming, and consumer and B2B technology.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones, Lucas was an associate at a regional Ontario law firm. Previously he summered at a national financial institution and articulated at a mid-size, multi-service firm in Toronto. Lucas is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and the Ontario Bar Association.

Outside of work, Lucas stays busy by playing hockey and golf, and enjoying the outdoors with friends and family.
